On the Court's own motion, this matter is REMANDED to the trial court for the purpose of settling the record as it pertains to the DVD that is a part of the record in this matter.

In particular, the DVD, as transmitted with the record to this Court, contains a police interview of defendant wherein the police officer made statements about a polygraph examination. The parties have not stipulated to whether this portion of the DVD was redacted. Therefore, on remand, the trial court shall determine whether any portion of the DVD referencing a polygraph examination was played to the jury. If the trial court determines there were no such references, it shall enter an order making such finding. If the trial court determines that one or more such references were played to the jury, the trial court shall make such a finding and provide this Court with a transcript of such portions that were played to the jury.

The trial court shall provide this Court with its settlement of the record within 21 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. We retain jurisdiction.
